Meet the Artist

Samarra Khaja makes happy, beautiful things inspired by her love of travel, local markets, food and culture, nostalgia, and her young sons. She revels in experimenting with the seemingly usual, turning it on its head and presenting it in a new unexpected light. She's also known for spending less time on her hair and more time on her drawing.

Living in New York City, she has worked across disciplines as a designer, photographer, art director, and illustrator for the likes of The New York Times, The Guggenheim, Bliss (spa and skin care), Time magazine, Victoria's Secret, and Cirque du Soleil—all in her signature whimsical style. She also designs textiles that mix contemporary design with a cheerful irreverence. They're bright, bold, and best of all, playful. Look for her fabric designs in shops worldwide and find fun projects to make in her new sewing project book, Sew Adorkable.

A quick lesson in using COLOR

Whether you are coloring pages in this book, selecting the clothes you are wearing today, or decorating your house or apartment, colors help you set a mood or tell a story. For example, bright colors are usually exciting, dark colors are stormy or dramatic, and pale colors are gentle.

If you're not sure what colors to use when you are coloring (or working on other projects), a color wheel can help you find the right colors for you.

THE COLOR WHEEL

Primary colors are used to make all the other colors.

Secondary colors are made by mixing primary colors.

Tertiary colors are the colors between primary and secondary colors.

COMBINING COLORS

Color schemes or color plans help you put colors together. All the colors' tints, tones, and shades can be included in a color scheme.

Monochromatic means "one color." Be sure to use the color's tints, tones, and shades.

Analogous colors are next to each other on the color wheel; they always play well together and are always harmonious.

TIP

Warm and cool colors are analogous colors.

Complementary colors are across from each other on the color wheel. They are always exciting and lively.

Rainbow color schemes include all the colors on the color wheel. This color scheme is bright, fun, and dynamic.

COLOR BLENDING AND MIXING

Even if you have a lot of colored pencils or paints, you may not have the exact color you are looking for. For colored pencils, try using a blending stick also called a stump or tortillion, or try using one color on top of the other to create just what you want. With paint, you can mix colors together. When you are blending or mixing colors for the first time, try them out on a piece of scratch paper until you get just what you want.

45+ unique designs to inspire your inner artist

Made for imaginations that never grew up, Samarra Khaja's designs create a wacky world of stories, where outdated technology manuals and robot romance novels sit side by side on the bookshelf with gardening books and science lab manuals. Be bold or subtle with color—it's your choice. Let your mind wander. Make up stories about scenes that you see. Connect with yourself. Stimulate your brain. Have friends over and color together. And when you're done, keep your masterpiece for yourself or give it as a gift for a friend.
